Emmanuella Grace is The Human Connection Expert.

In a world of bots, Emmanuella helps leaders in technical roles find their voice and discover what makes them irreplaceable.

She blends decades of peak performance experience as a professional singer on international stages, including the Royal Albert Hall, Barbican, and Sydney Opera House with training in psychology (Grad. Dip Psych.), teaching, and music (B. Mus. Hon., M. Mus. Perf. Teach.). Emmanuella takes audiences on an interactive journey utilising research based professional performance methods.

Participants gain confidence by deeply understanding their voice, their body, and themselves.

“Emmanuella took the stage at the ILP Impact Summit and the response was amazing! Her ‘rockstar’ stage presence captivated the L&D professionals. The feedback from attendees was overwhelmingly positive”

Nicole Hill, CEO
